DEFINITIONS

fascism

government of the gullible by the corrupt for the immoral

femicide

the killing of a woman because she is a woman, often with a working reproductive system, which threatens incredibly weak men

matriarchy

the natural, logical, and correct way to structure harmonious, fair, and just societies

patriarchy

a system and culture where weak men try to dominate strong women through violence, humiliation, oppression, enslavement, and murder

- this system elevates damaged, incompetent, and women-hating men because weak and lazy men are triggered by the half of the population with the most magical and significant power on earth: the power to continue the human species
- weak men hate depending on women for to birth their “legacies”

religion

social system for mass indoctrination, domination, oppression, and murder of people, with special emphasis on the subjugation, control, and enslavement of women

tradition

the idea that men are better than women in every way and, therefore, women must defer to men in every aspect of life, especially procreation

weak individual

a person without a solid core, scared of zir own thoughts, and who knows that zie is incapable, worthless, and unworthy

life in the American Dark Ages

we are in the American Dark Ages:

The Dark Ages is a term for the Early Middle Ages (c. 5th–10th centuries), or occasionally the entire Middle Ages (c. 5th–15th centuries), in Western Europe after the fall of the Western Roman Empire, which characterises it as marked by economic, intellectual, and cultural decline.

The concept of a "Dark Age" as a historiographical periodization originated in the 1330s with the Italian scholar Petrarch, who regarded the post-Roman centuries as "dark" compared to the "light" of classical antiquity. The term employs traditional light-versus-darkness imagery to contrast the era's supposed darkness (ignorance and error) with earlier and later periods of light (knowledge and understanding).

— Dark Ages (historiography), Wikipedia

this article uses the term Dark Ages to identify a period filled with

- boldfaced lies, hypocrisy, criminality, corruption, misogyny, whitewashing of history, contempt for science, praise of ignorance and the ignorant,

- book bans, disrespect of the environment, wanton use of oppressive technologies such as artificial intelligence and social media algorithms to manipulate lazy, gullible, or very young individuals who do not know how to distinguish fact from fiction,
- severe curtailment of the human rights of citizens, especially women (not to mention their official murders by despicable governors and attorneys general),
- attacks on citizens because of their ideas (a sign of weak-mindedness and autocratic tendencies), their gender identification, their origins, their race, their procreation priorities and plans

these are indeed dark times, which may last for generations until strong fact-loving people deserving of democracy, liberty, and freedom outnumber the ignorant, weak, gullible, lazy, and misguided ones who want a delusional autocrat to make all decisions for them, no matter how bad and stupid he is, and immunize him against prosecution for any and all crimes, including the murder of civilians to, for example, remove political opponents

what is the foundation of this country?

- capitalism? no
- socialism? no
- justice? no
- fairness? no
- freedom? no
- empirical truth? no
- honor? no
- knowledge? no
- liberty? no
- the Constitution? NO, NO, NO!
- Judeo-Christian values? hell no (plus those “values” were invented in the 11940s—centuries after the Founders wrote the country’s original foundational document the Constitution—for political reasons, of course

according to the results of the last election, none of these things can be identified as the country’s “foundation,” its principles and morals

- what is it then?
- easy: those with the most money win, regardless of how criminal they are, regardless of the number of women and girls hey have raped, beaten, defamed, abused, ridiculed for no reason other than a perverse ambition to maximize personal, physical, and emotional pleasure at the expense of women
- in other words, today the actual foundation of the United States of America is the pursuit of individual pleasure and power by a few incredibly wealthy, criminal, old white men devoid of morals and incapable of caring for anyone other than themselves and, maybe, their families and friends
- with a light perusal of news headlines from several sources, anyone can confirm this assertion for themselves

this terrible foundation is what allows coup organizers, traitors, rapists, fraudsters, and all around criminals to ask for and receive immunity from their crimes from a corrupt Supreme Court put together through deceit and subterfuge, so that they can return to leadership positions that allow them to destroy an ambitious multi-century project of self-determination, liberty, human rights, and rule of law for which millions of people gave their their lives to realize and maintain

Those who would give up essential Liberty, to purchase a little temporary Safety, deserve neither Liberty nor Safety.

Benjamin Franklin

those who take away fundamental rights from women deserve neither attention nor votes from women

new social-media platforms are bursting with the accounts for bots, liars, corrupt politicians, and agitators whose only goal is to provoke chaos at any cost, including the lives of human beings . these platforms also host an innumerable number of anonymous loathsome individuals, such as incels, that revel on harassing people anonymously because they are too weak to act under their own name and prefer to hide in the sullied, dark, alleys of the internet where sick, sniveling, cowardly creatures thrive

our mission today (and for the next several generations) is to ensure that this national hysteria and psychosis lasts as little as possible, and to immunize the population against the strategies and tactics that fascists and autocrats use to fool people the rest of this article focuses on women and the strategies and tactics that men use to dominate, oppress, enslave, demean, and exploit women:· why are women being treated worse than dogs in certain states?

· why are they encouraged not to participate in the job market and to instead allow men to abuse them, in addition to having as many babies as possible while maintaining a home, and happily serving as a man's sex toy?

it touches on the reasons women are prevented from participating in leadership roles, despite their superior minds and unique and incredibly valuable capacity to extend humankind through the discomfort, pain, and dangers involved in growing human beings within their bodies

· it also describes the need for female leadership in society and the ways it can be increased and solidified, including open and consistent rebellion against all forms of women domination and exploitation

I have my scars, you have yours
Don't let them take your power
Don't leave it alone in the final hours
They'll take your soul, they'll take your power

Don't close your eyes and hope for the best
The dark is out there
The light is going fast
Until the final hours
Your life's forever changed
And all the rights that you had yesterday

Are taken away
And now you're afraid
You should be afraid
Should be afraid

Because everything I fought for Long ago in a dream is gone
Someone said the dream is not over The dream has just begun

— The Lighthouse, Stevie Nicks

You don't know how bad it'll get A simple moment to forget
I'm not in danger
I'm the danger

Gold shall not define your worth
It's not destruction, it's rebirth
I'm not in danger
I'm the danger now

Show me what it means to change

Help me become something More than just a vessel in disguise
Pain is the price to survive
To evolve

— Evolve, The Warning

Need to purge the poison, show us our humanity
All the bad and good, racism and misogyny Nothing's hidden anymore, capitalism made us poor
God forgive America for every single war

Need to purge the poison from our system
Until human beings listen Tell me, who'd you think you are?

It's your own decision
But your home is now your prison
You forgot that without me you won't go far

— Purge The Poison, MARINA

the purpose of fascism

people choose fascism because they are weak

Fascism rejects the view that violence is inherently negative or pointless but rather views imperialism, political violence, and war as means to national rejuvenation. Fascists often advocate for the establishment of a totalitarian one-party state, and for a dirigiste economy (a market economy in which the state plays a strong directive role through economic interventionist policies), with the principal goal of achieving autarky (national economic self-sufficiency). Fascism's extreme authoritarianism and nationalism centres around the own group, but that can manifest as a belief in Manifest Destiny, revival of historical greatness (like Mussolini seeking to restore the Roman Empire) or in case of Nazism, racial purity or a master race which blended with some variant of racism or discrimination against a demonized "Other", such as Jews, homosexuals, transgender people, ethnic minorities, or immigrants. These ideas have motivated fascist regimes to commit massacres, forced sterilizations, deportations, and genocides. During World War II, the genocidal and imperialist ambitions of the fascist Axis powers resulted in the murder of millions of people.

— Fascism, Wikipedia

they are afraid of making decisions for themselves and of being accountable for the results and consequences of those decisions

- they are afraid of thinking for themselves and want others to do the choosing for them
- but they are even more scared of what people who are sure of themselves can do on their own
- they do not want to have in their midst people who think for themselves and live according to their own principles and values
- they know they cannot be happy following the whims of one disturbed and incompetent person and choose to live miserably instead among individuals who are also forced to live miserably (misery loves stupid company)

some people need religion because without strict guidance and external discipline they would be criminals and outcasts

- they are truly empty inside
- some people need a "strongman", dictator, king, because they are dissatisfied with their lives and want to have easy, simple lives with someone telling them what to do
- they want to live predictable, regimented lives with few choices and limited freedom

- they do not like seeing people living happier lives autonomously under more fair, egalitarian, and open-minded morals than their own
- they need to be in conflict with anyone or anything to satisfy their violent urges
- they want to live like children their entire lives but some people, actually the majority of people in most societies, accept life as it is

- they do not need "strongmen" to humiliate and oppress them, and to tell them who to like, what to do, and how to do it
- these people know what living in freedom, liberty, and mutual respect is, and choose to take the reins of their own lives and live under their own terms without the need to oppress, rape, or humiliate anyone else to feel powerful and satisfied
- to survive, people like this must continue to think for themselves, and find like-minded people to associate and live with, conflict free
- they love to live in harmony with others who also want to live in harmony

we cannot take everyone we care about with us because they are the enemy of our happiness and that is the only thing they are capable of being

what Judeo-Christian values?

anybody who says that the upcoming leadership team upholds Judeo-Christian values is full of shit

Principle 1: The Dignity of Human Life

- several states violate this principle by effectively murdering women by taking them to the brink of death before allowing them to receive life-saving medical treatment
- these states afford no dignity to women
- they treat animals (dogs, cats) going through similar medical distress with care and dignity that they deny female human beings just because they are female human beings

Principle 2: The Traditional Family

- Robert Morris
- Ruben Verastigui
- George Nader
- Republicans support human trafficking
- Joel Koskan, Randy Kaufman
- Joel Koskan
- Matt Gaetz
- Linda McMahon
- Robert John \(RJ\) May III
- “Why Republicans Have Become Obsessed With Accusing Their Opponents of Pedophilia”, in a word: projection
- Bridget Ziegler and [Christian Ziegler], a couple who, while condemning gay people for being gay, and espousing “traditional family values,” engaged in a threesome with a woman; years later said woman accused Christian of rape (he illegally recorded the encounter, which happened in the woman's home)

- child grooming, rape, human trafficking, oh my!
- hypocrites compose the lowest level of scum

Principle 3: A National Work Ethic

- 118th Congress least productive on record;
- what did Republicans in the House do? waste time; they were very effective at that

Principle 4: The Right to a God-Centered Education

- U.S. Constitution – Amendment 1
- freedom of religion is freedom from religion

Principle 5: The Abrahamic Covenant

- “Americans have accepted as fact that good deeds produced good results, that people who were “God-fearing” and respectable in language and lifestyle would be blessed by God.”
- therefore, we can look forward to damnation because of the language and lifestyle of a foulmouth, criminal rapist
- good times!

Principle 6: Common Decency

- see Principle 5: The Abrahamic Covenant

Principle 7: Our Personal Accountability to God

- multiple and habitual rapes from children to wives to strangers, fraud, lies, theft
- what does await the king after he croaks?
- according to this principle nothing good, which he rightfully deserves

there is no God

the idea of an all-powerful “creator” is a genius excuse and tool for men to behave badly and perform atrocious acts against women and any individuals who do not “get with the program”; for an illustrative example, see Inquisition

- do not take anybody's word for it
- do your own research using empirical evidence (what you see) and logical analysis (what you think about it)
- use that magnificent organ between your ears that processes your thoughts, dreams, and (non-empirical) feelings more efficiently than any supercomputer or artificial-intelligence system can ever do
- anybody in direct contact with this “creator” entity must implore him to address the world directly, not with floods, plagues, or natural disasters (which will happen more frequently because of our actions)
- and these people must not try to use circular logic, references to man-made “scripture”, admiration for the “beauty and complexity of nature,” or gut feelings to explain the “obvious”

existence of a “creator”

- “i cannot think of any other way our world and universe could have been created” is not a logical or valid argument for the existence of an invisible “creator”

that shit is crazy and it is done, at least for people who can think for themselves and have the courage to face the reality that they witness, and the brains to reason and demonstrate the fact-based deductions they make

- people must not be scared of their own minds; this is what “men of God,” nuns, pastors, and families do all the time to children
- lying to children about a fat, bearded man who flies all over the world in a sleigh in one night spreading gifts to all the “nice” kids is preparing them to believe that white men are the bringers of happiness and that they should follow everything those men say, even when those dirty men rape teenage girls or boys
- things like this do not count as science or logic, even though it uses plenty of logic-based and science-based terminology, such as “evidence” and “empirical” along “invisible” and “immaterial” in the first two paragraphs
- writing like that can be described only as charlatanism at its best
- the “logic” used there is not logical
- for example, it states “Logic is neither material nor visible, yet it’s legitimately considered “real” and can be both perceived and examined.”
- logic is a set of steps used to analyze information and form conclusions; it is not a thing you can toss around or take pictures of
- that is charlatanism

check your blasphemy at the door

people who do not believe in blasphemy are unable to blaspheme and therefore cannot be accused of blasphemy

- and this is an actual truth
- this is what a mind unencumbered by “tradition,” patriarchy, fake beliefs, myths, and bold-faced lies can do
- it is truly glorious!

people can live under a system where blasphemy is a thing, but not everybody lives under that patriarchal, mythology-based environment, which essentially is a prison of the mind, a prison that everybody reading this, and even those not reading it, can escape by putting a little different in their thinking

- women, that means especially you:

“Free your mind”

— The Matrix, Morpheus

and just like in The Matrix, women have to believe that they can free themselves from their patriarchal, mental prisons to actually do it

your brain is everything

people with Alzheimer's disease can change completely from one moment to another

- this is a disease of the brain, an organ in the human body; women and men have brains; women's brains are superior for many provable reasons
- men do not like that though and try every way possible to condition and coerce women into thinking incorrectly

the mammal brain evolved from a set of light-processing cells to the highly capable organ it is today

- all mammals have brains with various levels of processing capacity depending on species and other factors

- some people are born with damaged or under-developed brains, which greatly influences their ability to easily navigate the world that people with undamaged, fully developed brains have created for themselves

- this is separate from the subject of intelligence though; a highly intelligent mind can live in a brain that cannot fully manage its body for various reasons; but that does not preclude that person from otherwise living a full human life

- this is all to say the concept of a soul is also fantasy

- some people may not like that and even reject it

- that is okay

- but their individual positions on the matter must never affect the lives of other people, especially people who do not share that position

- this is what the US Constitution, the country's "scripture" says, despite what many biased individuals think and loudly say about it (the loudest voices often are the stupidest)

- their thoughts are irrelevant to every other individual in the country who chooses not to abide by what they say, because they have their own brains and can form their own thoughts and opinions under freedom and liberty

EXCEPT FOR WOMEN, OF COURSE

the men interpreting the nation's "scripture" and the "scriptures" of individual states today have different ideas for women from the billions of people who have lived under our "scripture" for centuries

- this is what (usually white) men in power do to keep and increase their power
- they are such fucking weak, small, petty, thin-skinned, emotionally-vacant bullies

Your messiah was never mine Hypocrites!

Sorcerers and sadists come
To define the what and why People travel 'cross this earth
Over water, land and sky

Pay the ferryman, pay the fucking driver!
Pay the preachers and pay the fucking liars!

Pay the bitches they're charging all their dates, stand by!
I'm not gonna pay, it's already mine!

Little old lady at home Writing out a check to send It's all the money that she owns
She believes the world might end

— Hypocrites, Korn

Last time you told me it wasn't true
And pointing every finger at things that you didn't do So that's why I kept missing the clues
And never realized that the one that did it was you

Your truth's not rigid, your rules aren't fair
The dark's too vivid, the light's not there
I start to give in, but I can't bear
To put it all behind, I run into it blind like

— Two Faced, Linkin Park

I'm not scared, you're scared
I'm not you, you're you
I'm not what you did, I'm not what you do
I just call it out for the world to see
Own up to your shit, don't project on me anymore

You need to look in the mirror
You need to face what you fear
You need to look in the mirror
You need to know why I'm here

I'm sick of being silenced
It's not my fault that
The truth is in the violence
I am not the enemy
I am not your bruise
I faced my fucking self, maybe you should try it too

women build humanity

twice in the past three presidential elections the voting public of an “advanced society” chose an inferior man with no plans but malformed “concepts”—promising to undo centuries of country-building, human rights, and progress—over an overqualified and vastly more experienced woman with a sound vision for the future of the country

the chosen: a man who is a criminal, rapist, obviously corrupt (and proud of it), owned by billionaires, and mentally and morally inferior to the majority of the adult population; he is also in obvious mental decline

- he is too old and feeble to lead a powerful and diverse country

the slighted: incredibly smart women with vast governmental and political experience who have shown grit and superior intelligence to the men they confront

- many of those men expressing sentiments like “you make me nervous” to these women’s faces
- this is because these men are intimidated by smart, strong, confident women
- they are surprised that a woman is an able and superior opponent
- they are seldom exposed to such capable women, often because the women choose not to come to the fore and confront these weak and feeble men
- the women they are used to are submissive, shy, and unwilling to fend for themselves, just as patriarchy and religion want them patriarchy: a system through which weak, dumb, morally inept men (Donald Trump) sell their services to moneyed unscrupulous men (Elon Musk), men who have no respect for anybody or anything but themselves, their own grandiosity, and their power over others, while having the thinnest skin in the entire history of skin why do so many people, women in particular, chose inferior men instead of strong, smart, female leaders?

- because of the successful customs and practices that put women down in relation to the “all knowing and powerful men”
- this is the result of—in addition to governmental, political, social, and economic structures that favor men over women—insidious customs and practices that denigrate women to minimize their superior intelligence and invaluable contribution to the longevity of humankind but the most insidious vehicle through which women are marginalized from birth and made to accede to the needs and wants of men in spite of their own needs, wants, potential, and aspirations is religion

societies with only one man as the leader (autocracies, dictatorships, kingdoms) falter more frequently than those with diverse and inclusive leadership and those led by women because they avoid the many disadvantages that egomaniacal, narcissistic, close-minded, and conflict-loving male leadership offers

- before they were nearly exterminated and driven from the land they had inhabited for thousands of years by militarily advanced invaders, after many wars Native Americans developed the precursor to the US Congress, and it was run by women
- the men respected the savvy and consistent leadership that the women leaders provided
- the Founders of the USA, unfortunately, failed to recognize the reason the Iroquois confederacy was (and is) so successful is the central role women have in it
- the US Congress is a very poor imitation of the work the Native Americans did hundreds of years before Congress was created

You can't stand to see me shine, better buy a visor
 You don't ever cross my mind, what's a sheep to a tiger?
 On your horse so high, swear to God I'm higher Now you're beggin' for a dime, I'ma throw you a fiver Beggin' for it, beggin' for it, beggin' for some relevance
 As soon as I pull up on you, scare you like a skeleton
 You can't stand to see me shine, better buy a visor

You don't ever cross my mind, what's a sheep to a tiger?

Heard the gossip, heard a rumor
That you said you made me who I am
You think you're the man
You're so toxic, like Britney bitch
I drop you just because I can You think you're the man (bitch, please)

— Toxic, Ashnikko

women have the equipment and the pain of procreation

were it not for the sacrifices that women make, and the pains women go through ensuring the longevity of humanity, there would be no humanity

- biology provides women with incredible power and influence over the future of humanity
- men consistently devalue this power and dehumanize women to control them and their power

motherhood is fucking brutal

Nightbitch

humankind requires critical biological hardware through which humans create other humans to replace them and continue the human race

- that hardware—ovums, uteri, fallopian tubes—comes only in women

· and maintaining and using it takes a lot of time and resources that, biologically at least, most men have no interest in, and that some men despise because it reminds them of their relative inferiority to the powerful women that trigger their feeble sensibilities

· thankfully, through the wonders of science, women may sometime be able to conceive without men

If we had a daughter, I'd watch and could not save her
The emotional torture, from the head of your high table
She'd do what you taught her, she'd meet the same cruel fate
So now I've gotta run, so I can undo this mistake
At least I've gotta try

All day, every day, therapist, mother, maid
Nymph then a virgin, nurse then a servant
Just an appendage, live to attend him
So that he never lifts a finger 24/7, baby machine
So he can live out his picket fence dreams
It's not an act of love if you make her You make me do too much labour

— labour, Paris Paloma

Call me names, call me Lost One That's all I ever knew
I was searching in the foreign Begging for more
You make me feel like a no one Got me fucked up in the long run
You leave me shattered like an orphan Orphan

You defined my reality
All I've seen is brutality
And the hatred came naturally I'm a freak like mum

— Banshee, Mimi Banks

legitimate rape

when he was alive, an unfortunate political leader thought that the concept of legitimate rape was legitimate

· this old, white, male politician (someone with the benefit of high education, and easy access to the best obstetricians, gynecologists, and even first-year medical students) uttered this ignorant, shameful bullshit regarding rape and the need for abortion due to extreme violations of women's and girl's bodies and lives:

Todd Akin:

If it's legitimate rape, the female body has ways to try to shut the whole thing down.

— Todd Akin, Missouri Republican state representative 2001–2013

so many questions come to mind, setting aside the “biology” this idiot seems to be talking about:

- what is an illegitimate rape?
regular sex?

that would be a terrible answer (to a sensible person), but why did he not distinguish between regular sex and rape? because, in his patriarchal, misogynistic head, there was no fucking difference!

- why in the hell did he use the term, legitimate rape?
because he was an ignorant misogynist with no interest in or regard for women's welfare, rights, or dominion over their bodies

as is customary for Republican politician, he tried to justify his use of the term with what can only be called a “weave” of actual bullshit

· thank goodness that “gaffe” ended his political career

he lost to a woman

no wonder the same quality of leadership is now killing women who commit the crime of becoming pregnant—while married to bring new humans into the world—or girls who are raped by their fathers, uncles, cousins, grandpas, or absolute strangers

- they do this just to prove that men can dominate all aspects of women's lives and bodies, and even determine whether they live or die
- weak men like these are triggered by the fact that women are superior to them in every way
- they cannot stand it and dream every day of ways of correcting this terrible injustice, including writing books that describe women as being created from a man's rib, which is a biological impossibility with billions of years of evidence debunking that male-centered, idiotic fantasy
- seriously
- the first woman ever was created after a man was running around, getting bored and lonely, the raw material used to create that woman is a man's rib!?
- give me fucking break

no more needs to be said about the “knowledge” that traditionalist (misogynist) men in positions of power have about the female body

- most of them are woefully unqualified to make any decisions regarding human reproduction, let alone be anywhere near the government bodies who pass laws regarding the functioning, capabilities, and treatment of the female body
- a female leader would not have embarrassed herself so thoroughly by using such an ignorant and unnatural concept as legitimate rape

This is my body

My body is mine, don't belong to the government

This is my body, it's mine to decide what the fuck I can do with it

This is my body, my right to decide is my right to my freedom

This is my body, yeah, yeah

Not just a body, yeah

Women are dying

And every day, my thoughts have been spiraling

How many rights will they take from the women, non-binary, trans people, violence?

Is it the answer?

Maybe it is and they're scared we'll discover

The strength of our feminine power

The strength of our anger in numbers

This generation has the tools to push for a brighter future
Where victims are not punished in a system that is meant to protect them Women, trans, non-binary, and people with uteruses will have the rights to their own bodies
And rapists will not walk free anymore no

— Dead Men Don't Rape, Delilah Bon

Have you ever walked a little faster
After midnight when you're all alone?
Have you ever pulled your jacket tighter
While pretending that you're on the phone?
Have you ever held your tongue
When someone tried to call you "baby"?
If you say a word, he's gonna call you crazy
Well, I have and she has, too

We say "no" but they still hear "yes"
Blame our clothes and it's not all men
But it's all women
So we hold our breath, baby nonetheless

— Not All Men, Morgan St. Jean

I may be a doe
But my knees will not tremble
I stare into the eyes
Of the wolf
And stand my ground
I stand alone
Get out this is my home
Get out this is my home
Wipe off the lint on you door
Mine's got the blood of the wolf

Don't be friend the rats
The hunter
Wants me to get on my knees

Look straight
Into the barrel of his gun and
And thank him
For not shooting me mercilessly
What the fuck
The rats all scattered
Now its up to me

— I may be a doe., Banshee

women are smart and courageous courageous women make the social groups that they lead more harmonious, empathetic, and diplomatic than those led by men

- without women there are no men
- this is a powerful advantage that women should leverage more effectively, negating the influence of so-called leaders who rely on myths, coercion, lies, and violence to implement their misogynist agendas
- women truly scare these weak, hateful, ignorant men

we need inspiration from the smart, innovative, and courageous women of the suffrage movement of the 1900s

- using the vote that such women obtained—by lobbying, petitioning, protesting, picketing, demonstrating, and being arrested—to elect a misogynist monster, rapist, and proud sexual abuser, in addition to many other disqualifying factors, is something that today's women should be ashamed of the women who voted for a child rapist, proud sexual offender, woman-hating nincompoop should be ashamed of themselves

- if the suffragettes who sacrificed so much to give these women the vote were to wake up from their long naps and found out what their descendants have done with the vote they dedicated their lives and sacrificed their relationships to obtain, the suffragettes would be incredibly pissed off, and with good fucking reason

women are natural leaders

the most intelligent animal societies (elephants, whales, dolphins) are led by females; they are matriarchies

- in these societies the females' physical sizes and capabilities are closer to the males'
- their superior mental capabilities and ability to further the species are what makes them great leaders of their cohesive groups
- females are in charge of rearing and guiding clans or pods
- the adult males are often loners whose only function is to spread their seed; to this end, they hunt and eat to gain weight and muscle to be able to defeat other males in battle, to gain the right to mate with females in estrus, not unlike the modern misogynist man
- this behavior is very similar to that exhibited by countries and regions led by men, which is to be expected
- the leaders of these intelligent societies are female not because they are physically stronger but because they are smarter: brain beats brawn

to survive, humanity must recognize and foment female leadership over male oppression

- “because this is how we have always done it” is not a valid reason to continue this antiquated, unfair, and illogical imbalance

men keep women down out of fear

The Bible:

A woman should learn in quietness and full submission. I do not permit a woman to teach or to assume authority over a man; she must be quiet. For Adam was formed first, then Eve. And Adam was not the one deceived; it was the woman who was deceived and became a sinner. But women will be saved through childbearing—if they continue in faith, love and holiness with propriety.

The Qur'an:

Men are the caretakers of women, as men have been provisioned by Allah over women and tasked with supporting them financially. And righteous women are devoutly obedient and, when alone, protective of what Allah has entrusted them with.<sup>1</sup> And if you sense ill-conduct from your women, advise them “first”, “if they persist,” do not share their beds, “but if they still persist,” then discipline them “gently”.<sup>2</sup> But if they change their ways, do not be unjust to them. Surely Allah is Most High, All-Great.

religious people often use the word context to defend passages like these in their “holy books”

- in what context does a man have the right to hit his wife, to kill her for not being obedient enough, or for not giving him male children?
- do men also have to be quiet and meek towards their male leaders?
- or do they have the right to question, to oppose, to analyze, to give different perspectives, like philosophers and theologians do?
- there is no context that justifies this treatment of women men do not like women in leadership because most of the time they are embarrassed by women's mental and emotional superiority

- most men in leadership positions are cowards who rely on the positions themselves to wield power
- they do not have the capacity to influence anybody with words and examples from their own lives because they are hypocrites

no one can deny the fact that, when it comes to procreating women drew the short straw some may try, but they would be making absolute fools of themselves

a woman can give birth to a man that can then become pope

- in the process, she can experience the highest level of human pain and discomfort, have permanent changes to her body, or die
- birth is the premier event of every human being, and women experience it from two distinct perspectives
- nature has given women abilities that no man can replicate; no science can give a man the capability to host and deliver brand-new little humans
- women are superior to men in every way that counts
- but a woman cannot become pope because she is a woman

• why the fuck is that?

for the same reason that an inferior man (in every way that counts) is now president elect:

- patriarchy
- religion
- toxic masculinity, and toxic femininity
- blissful and purposeful ignorance
- hate for fellow humans because they think differently, are of a different gender, have different color skin, pray to a different god, do not pray at all, or want to have full control of their bodies

THIS FUCKING SICKNESS HAS TO END!

sensible people, women in particular, must plant the seeds that transform into the large forests that clean the toxicity and unfairness produced by the irrational and dangerous domination of men (who are often bloviating blowhards) over women, who are often smarter than the men who dominate them but do not show it because of patriarchy and religion

- these men dominate women through oppression, bullying, intimidation, and murder (because men are simple like that: anything they do not like, or are jealous of, must be sidelined or destroyed)

but to plant the seeds, planters need to visualize the trees that each seed will produce

- this vision is nothing that religion, or science, or politics, or technology, or bullies can realize
- only individuals operating from a place of real honesty and real facts, not ego and fantasy, can come up with visions that benefit entire societies

society progresses through scientific research not prayer to an invisible god

the solution is in our minds and our hearts

- each individual reading this has the power to bring about real change to humanity
- yes, humanity must change
- the past is the past
- but because we are honest with ourselves, each of us determines our future and the future of the groups that have the privilege to have us as members
- we must abandon groups that do not conform with our internal set of principles and values despite tradition and culture
- instead of simply adopting the morals and practices of people who lived in immoral and unenlightened times, we must think and act for ourselves according to the realities and challenges of these times

oppressing through religion

can women be represented effectively by a bunch of old, "celibate" dudes?

· no

· the answer is no

we must reject all scriptures and ancient practices that put men exclusively at the top of social, political, and familial groups only because they are men, and that put women at the service of men

- men come from women (not the other way around); it is women who should be at the top
- these practices are the reason why so many women today are programmed to act against their own best interests, like in this last election
- in a land that kills women today because they are women, that puts women at the service of incels and abusive men, and that ignores the many contributions women make to benefit, extend, and improve humanity, how can any woman vote for the man who represents proudly everything that men do against women and girls, including the outlandish act of “grabbing them by the pussy”?

these “sacred scriptures” are instructions to men on how to use women for their pleasure, for maintaining their homes clean, and for creating their legacy through their wombs

- at the same time, they are instructions to women on how to please and serve men
- those scriptures feature more abuse, misogyny, and capricious destruction than anyone can imagine
- and the “believers,” including girls and women, are told that those ancient tales are based on facts
- the fact is that those tales based on the predilections of men that see themselves as the rulers of everything and everyone, especially those with the greatest power on earth: women any group or community who does not encourage women to join its leadership team and effectively prohibits women from its leadership ranks deserves neither the membership nor the patronage of women TODAY there is no time to wait

when people refer to “God” as a person, to what are they referring to?

- is this entity actually communicating with individuals?
- is there factual evidence of such a being operating in society?
- or is the belief in “God” little more than a strong feeling with emotional connections and ramifications that are purely personal?
- why does this “God” seem to prefer men over women, and benefits men at the expense of women?
- that certainly does not sound like the behavior of a “just and loving god”
- the fact is that “God” is a concept, a human creation, to address fear, and to control large groups of people
- civilization has largely abandoned human sacrifice as a way to cajole the gods into not killing them but to instead provide healthy crops and rain and sunlight to take care of them
- not so long ago, eclipses were taken to be omens of imminent danger
- but, thanks to science (observation, analysis, theorization, confirmation)—not male-centered scripture—we know now that eclipses are nothing special, just a traveling shadow over a round earth religion is the biggest restrainer of advancement humanity has invented

- people of science had to fight ignorant and power-hungry “men of God” to move humanity forward
- some people try to give religion “scientific legitimacy” by coopting the word “science,” and coming up with things like Christian Science, which has absolutely nothing resembling actual science

THERE ARE MANY, MANY QUESTIONS THAT RATIONAL PEOPLE SHOULD ASK BEFORE TAKING ANOTHER PERSON’S “TRUTH” AS THEIR OWN

Katherine of Aragon was a lifelong devoted Catholic and faithful and loyal wife

- despite that, and the respect she earned through her intelligence and knowledge (the attributes of a great role model and leader) she was punished because her husband's sperm failed to produce a male
- why did "God" abandon such a person?
- because God is a construct created by men to dominate populations
- a loving god, a fair god, a just god would not have treated a devout disciple such as Katherine so badly
- telling people that such tribulations are tests that "God" gives people so that they earn their passage into Jannah, Aaru, Valhalla, Heaven, or some celestial plane where everything is wonderful and plentiful, is a tool of control, just like stories about Santa Claus are tools used by lazy parents and greedy corporations to keep children in line and to make money

there is empirical evidence of Katherine's vocation and fealty and her punishment for it

- in fact, King Henry VIII created a church to rule England and allow him to divorce his loyal wife
- in other words, a man in power created a religious structure by which he was able to divorce his wife and marry another woman
- one could say that that bears striking similarities to a dumb but somehow influential rapist setting up five justices to declare him immune in a land ruled by a constitution set up to expressly disallow that
- scriptures are neither holy nor godly; they are man-made instruments of control and domination

by some men over many individuals not all scriptures contain passages that blatantly say that women should be dominated and punished for being women

- the Torah is not as bad as the Bible or the Qur'an in this respect
- but in the Jewish religion the rabbis have varied, inconsistent opinions of the roles of women people should research the “scriptures” on which their religion bases its dogma

- individuals should use critical thinking (not fears and feelings), observation, introspection, and research skills when deciding which values to adopt as their own
- they must not just follow the guidance of teachers, priests, rabbis, or any person in a position of authority because everybody has the capacity to be a hypocrite and a liar
- nobody see through the masks behind which these people hide their true selves, until they get entangled in their own webs of lies
- everybody should use their own judgment in determining whether their church's morals are compatible with their own
- does the church support a fundamentally immoral and despicable person like Donald Trump?
- does it support the use of violence against innocent people whose only “sin” is having published their research and opinions on a land that supposedly values freedom of speech?
- is the church essentially a cult of personality, and the personality a vacuous individual with no aspirations other than pleasure and power for himself, like Caligula?

Caligula was a “self-indulgent, cruel, sadistic, extravagant and sexually perverted [ruler]; an insane, murderous tyrant who demanded and received worship as a living god, humiliated his Senate, and planned to make his horse a consul”

- does this description remind you of someone in particular?
- does such a person deserve to lead any human being?

the speech that is deemed acceptable is the one that attacks people who want only to work, people who do not accept the positions of the crooks, rapists, and traitors in charge

- when a religious community decides whether to adhere to its “scripture” and written rules and values only when it benefits the few at the top, that cult eventually falls due to its inauthenticity and sham foundations
- if the morals of a person's religion are incompatible with the values that the person has decided to follow to be true to zirsself (such as honesty, fairness, equality, respect, honor, or not raping teenage girls), that person should find a place where zie is accepted for who zie is, what zie thinks, and what zie can willingly contribute to the group

predisposing girls to be subservient to men and boys

boys are brought up to be workers, builders, professionals, leaders, and to view girls only as something pretty to look at and whose destiny is arranged to be wives, mothers, and comforters even to abusive men

- girls are brought up to be pretty, mothers, maids, nurses, and to accept everything a boy or man does because “boys will be boys” (and “men” will be boys too)

for society to realize its full potential, all people must be brought up with the knowledge that gender does not determine the type of life a person should live

- for example, traditionally women were not widely represented in manufacturing
- during World War 2, women were tapped to help manufacture equipment for the war and did an exemplary job
- women are not only capable leaders, when given the opportunity they also perform well in manufacturing jobs that used to be the domain of male workers
- there is absolutely no reason to limit women's participation in the job market by poisoning their minds when they are young with “traditional” ideas of the role that women have in society; ideas that originated before humans moved into caves to protect against the elements; ideas that rhinoceroses, giraffes, and orangutans still hold but that humans should have left in the planes and the caves they left 12,000 years ago

“Michigan manufacturers tap women to support industry's growth”:

I imagine the encouragement from an education standpoint, that women are more exposed to STEM activities, that there is more opportunity for awareness among youth that are embarking on new avenues for education and careers.”

“So I think that that has opened the doors to a lot of women realizing that this is a viable opportunity for them.

controlling women's bodies

this is the preamble of the US Constitution, the country's "scripture":

We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

— The Constitution of the United States

these words are not law, but they introduce the founding document of the United States

- there are several important terms that this introduction mentions: People, Justice, Tranquility, Welfare, Posterity in hindsight, the preamble (and the law it introduces) contains several omissions that subsequent amendments correct, such as abolishing slavery and awarding women the right to vote

- the amendments also clarify the rights that all citizens have (it does not conditionalize any rights as only for men or only for women (something that white men with lots of money have violated for many years to legalize their misogyny, racism, and contempt for the poor)
- for evidence, just look at history, case law, and the people who use their “speech” (money in this country, a contemptuous fact made true by moneyed white men), which allow a very wealthy and think-skinned person to buy the votes of thousands of people
- such clarifications in most cases are additive
- at the federal level, rights are generally not removed once codified

the Constitution and its amendments give all citizens dominion over their own bodies, including the privacy to discuss and solve medical issues with their doctors

- however, at the state level, moneyed white men have effectively—and unconstitutionally—taken away from women the right to control their own bodies and to have private discussions with their physicians about their health (men do not suffer this unfair invasion of privacy, a right afforded every citizen by the US Constitution, the country’s “scripture”)
- this form of control over women is not new; it has been in man-written “scripture” for thousands of years
- however, in the place with the ambition to provide an environment where freedom, liberty, justice, and fairness reign, moneyed white men have paid to destroy the country’s espoused main purpose: to provide everybody equally the opportunity to live and succeed moneyed white men use religion to control masses of people because it is cheap and effective

- all they have to do is befriend (buy) a few religious leaders in control of gullible, fearful, and poor people to have a movement
- and the most effective vehicle to people-domination is control over the women
- this is because women are the center of society
- they have the most valuable superpower on earth: the power to give birth to people
- in war, women are the most prized objects of victory and domination because of their power

WOMEN:

don’t let [moneyed white men] take your power

— The Lighthouse, Stevie Nicks

so how do we go from the US Constitution to states like Indiana, Georgia, and Texas who have effectively legalized the murder of women going through natural medical distress, which originated from a man's dick?

- around 1950 HE, the Republican party determined that banning abortion was the best way to convince an uninformed, gullible electorate to join their backward-looking, misogynistic movements

- this cult, er, political party, controlled by moneyed white men, has as its sole purpose the domination of a society, and its most efficient tool is the domination of women's minds and bodies through enablers such as incels, pastors, and famous criminal individuals who can rape any woman they want because "they let me do it"

what a woman does with her own body is

NO ONE ELSE'S FUCKING BUSINESS

no matter who they are no matter what their religion is this is what the supreme law of the land

statesso clearly that even men can understand

privacy—a constitutional right stolen from women

moneyed white men vested in controlling women at any cost, dedicate their influence and their "speech" (money) to taking away the rights that women should enjoy according to the national scripture known as the US Constitution

Amendment 4 Search and Seizure:

The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers, and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no Warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by Oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

— The Constitution of the United States

Amendment 14 Citizenship Rights:

All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside.

No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

— The Constitution of the United States

if women do not fight for the rights that they rightfully should enjoy today, they will continue to loose rights because of crafty losers, like Greg Abbott, Ken Paxton, and Ron DeSantis, who are jealous of women's nature-given superior human abilities

- these weasels, after being born from women, were groomed in families, schools, and churches advocating for the domination of women by mucho macho men
- they may also simply just been bought by immoral, moneyed white men because their political ambitions and weak minds made them attractive, malleable tools

your private data

women who value their privacy must not put their fertility info into any app that is controlled by a private entity, especially if the app is “FDA approved” as the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) will be under the control of an egomaniacal, woman-hating, misogynistic rapist owned and controlled by moneyed, corrupt, and thin-skinned white men, the last person any woman should let oversee her reproductive life

- at the very least, women considering using such apps should set aside one full day to read and understand the end-user agreements, terms of service, and privacy policies through which they are legally bound with any entity associated with the app through either business relationships, mergers, acquisitions, or government requests that all companies are compelled to satisfy
- these requests include the disclosure of personal and health data with government agencies controlled by a psychopath, child rapist who sexually batters 13-year-old girls and fancies himself a god

any government agency getting information about your reproductive life may put you in danger of being monitored, tracked, arrested, and killed

BECAUSE YOU ARE A WOMAN, PROPERTY, A SLAVE WITH NO RIGHTS

every statement in the previous paragraph is corroborated by undeniable facts that gullible and lazy people ignore at their and their country's peril

- unlike members of the cult of personality known as the Republican Party, people who want to honestly inform fellow citizens do not have to resort to idiotic lies to get their message across

you should make sure to read the contracts you enter into when you start using these apps

- although companies may have copies of those contracts in easy-to-read websites, the ones the apps display on the devices where they are installed when you accept their terms are the ones to which you get legally bound—in unpredictable and dangerous ways
- and, because most of these entities make their money by sharing personal and health information with other entities such as advertisers in ways that you may find objectionable, many app developers make it very difficult and inconvenient to actually read these contracts on their devices
- they prefer that you just tap away your rights without knowing that they may cause serious damage to your privacy and security by doing so

set aside a full day to review the contracts (privacy policies and terms of service) that you enter into when you download and use apps to track your menstruation cycles and other aspects of your reproductive life

app developers and publishers regularly change their terms of use and privacy policies

- and when that happens, you are bound to those changes, regardless of your knowledge of them
- it is your responsibility to re-read the contracts to determine what changed because the app publishers or developers almost never tell you what changed in those legally enforceable contracts

WARNING

- do not use apps to track your fertility information
- or use drip.
  - (you can read and accept its terms of use in under 30 seconds, as opposed to a few hours)
  - this app keeps your data on your device, presents no ads, shares nothing with advertisers, and is free

involuntary servitude and femicide

Amendment 13 of the US Constitution states:

1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.
2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

— The Constitution of the United States

when a retrograde states like Florida, Georgia, Indiana, or Texas prevent a trained and licensed healthcare providers from helping patients address a medical issue with their bodies, the states effectively treat women as slaves by placing them in involuntary servitude without them having committed any crimes

- healthcare providers have the knowledge, training, experience, and licenses necessary to expertly address medical conditions in women that are the result of an “act of God,” such as egg fertilization, following an act of man (ejaculation) here is an interesting question:

- does any abortion ban mention the instigator of the woman’s or girl’s pregnancy in any way?

femicide is the murder of women because of their gender

- murderous government officials, such as criminals against humanity Ron DeSantis, Ashley Moody, Eric Holcomb, Todd Rokita, Greg Abbott, Ken Paxton, Brian Kemp, and Christopher Carr, have conspired to murder women who have committed no crime
- these people have put in place rules that in effect bring death to women whose pregnancies do not result in a baby being born
- they are happy sitting on their asses while women are sent home to bleed to death because medical personnel—facing time in prison, incurring heavy fines, or losing their medical privileges and licenses—are prevented from providing the life-saving assistance that they have trained for
- THESE MURDERERS DESERVE THE DEATH PENALTY FOR THEIR UNCONSTITUTIONAL ACTIONS
- every individual who voted for these people is complicit in their heinous crimes against women in this supposed “land of the free and home of the brave”

what kind of retrograde country lets young women, mothers, wives, die to make a fucking point? are we savages now?

what kind of “men of God” allow the killing of innocent women?

- men who are the property of moneyed white men with dreams of riches, grandiosity, and domination
- the retrograde system that is patriarchy facilitates this kind of shit
- unfortunately, the gullible, uninformed, and lazy electorate of the United States has made it probable that these fucking abortion bans are made the law of the entire country, causing the death of many, many women just living their lives
- NO MAN FACES ANY CONSEQUENCES FOR PREGNANCIES THAT DO NOT GO AS NORMAL DUE TO NO FAULT OF THE PREGNANT PERSON OR ANYBODY ELSE

PATRIARCHY AND ITS BFF RELIGION ARE DEADLY FOR WOMEN the savages in charge get raging hard-ons when women die in hospitals, parking lots, or their own homes because of how jealous these weak and idiotic cowards are at women’s supreme ability to advance humanity with their bodies these fuckers should be arrested and tried for crimes against humanity; they must not hold in high regard men who were or are murdering women ALL those men and their enablers are fucking garbage

Like oh my god shut the fuck up

You can always be sweeter

Hotter than a fever

Apex predator

One step ahead of her

This is call for war this is a call for war

— The Man, Cinnamon Babe, Otep

Who the fuck you calling?
I'm that girl you couldn't get and now you hate me for it
I'm not asking for it
Don't you ever touch my hair unless you're paid to cut it

Excuse me where you going
I don't want to get to know you
I don't want to give my number
I can feel your gearbox slowing Conversation isn't flowing

I can feel your red cheeks glowing
Is it too much for your ego
When I say see ya amigo

It's my prerogative
I don't dress up to impress you're such a narcissist
I'm not ashamed of it
It's my body, it's my mind, do what I want with it

Yeah you only love me not in my dreams
Hold on a little longer
Hold on a little longer Mirtazapine
When I'm lucid, when I see
Hold on a little longer ah
On a little longer

— Mirtazapine, Mimi Barks

skirting accountability and responsibility

influential and wealthy men use the legal system—specifically non-disclosure agreements (NDAs), arbitration, and good old intimidation—to protect themselves from criticism about and responsibility for their sexual crimes:

- Donald Trump, Jeffrey Epstein
- Danny Masterson
- Harvey Weinstein

• because of their influence, power, and wealth, these men have made life difficult for persons, in particular women, who attempted to make them accountable for their criminal sexual activities

judges help rapists

judges, who are supposed to be impartial interpreters of law and enforcers of justice, blatantly protect and defend men accused and convicted of rape

- while sentencing a student found guilty of rape, a judge commented: “a prison sentence would have a severe impact on him,” discounting the severe impact of the rape on the victim
- thankfully, such positions have severely damaged that judge’s career
- underlining the damage that toxic masculinity and toxic femininity have on society, female judges can also tend to let male rapists off the hook

I say, "Where's the daddy?"

Never really had one, so I will never know, but If you stick around, maybe you could tell me more 'Cause somethin' in the way that you suck to me, lot Lot of man got trained from when they're in a cot
Look at stacks of the men growing up in a rut Filling slots of the badland, cheese blood clot

History re-runs, bitches still fucked
Where the fuck's my support for the child when you're broke?
If you run out of luck me have to drive a truck Take my boy around, so he doesn't stay stuck
'Cause look at all the babies growin' up in the muck Lookin' up at the fucked-up men like, "Yuck"
I said look at all the babies growin' up in the rut

— Where's The Daddy?, Major Lazer, M.I.A.

My eyes feel like they're bleeding
From crying all night

You were yelling all night
You said I'm the one who needed to seek help
You were right
'Cause you fucked me up for life
Yea you fucked me up for life

I don't believe men like you deserve to live
And if there was a god
I don't believe that you'd exist
Death is the way to repent for all your sins
And until then may you itch inside your skin

— If There Was A God You Wouldn't Exist, Banshee

Heard you bit the dust
Wish the rest would follow suit
Least I don't gotta worry 'bout you now
I don't gotta worry 'bout you

We were in the basement
Sitting on the couch When you couldn't understand What was everybody's first word?
"No"

Then I found out that you died on the couch
Then I found out that you died on the couch

I'm not saying he deserved it Just kidding
I'm absolutely saying he deserved it

You choked in your last breaths
Poetic justice
That's hilarious bitch
That's hilarious

— DEATH OF A PREDATOR, Banshee

returning aristocracy to government

humanity's continued incorporation of representative democracy replacing aristocracy and autocracy has been great for women

- gone (almost) are the days when governments were structured on the idea that a woman was little more than an incubator
- in other words, governments were built on the wombs of women that were considered little more than expendable objects

the norm was that aristocracy was the government and government was the aristocracy

- who filled powerful governmental positions was determined almost exclusively by familial relationships, giving preference to male heirs over female heirs
- in the Roman Empire, the emperor usually bequeathed the emperor ship to one of his male heirs (through birth or adoption)
- women were used to bring families together thorough marriage, which was done to prevent war, as a result of war, or any other reason, such as a one man offering his daughter in marriage to a friend or business partner to express gratitude
- of course this practice was not limited to ancient Rome; modern kingdoms like The UK still practice this; although it has had several queens, it always gives preference to male heirs
- misogyny was an intrinsic part of the structure of society
- those practices while still present to various degrees are not “official”

the United States has never seen a president handing out that office to a son

- unfortunately, we may be about to witness such an unconstitutional action
- the fascism that the Republican Party has bolstered in the past few years is astounding
- the leader of the party, Donald Trump, has made it very clear to congresspeople, governors, attorneys general, and any Republican person in a position of authority that not following his wishes is grounds for being fired or primaried
- this behavior is the definition of fascism
- no one can deny the president-elect’s autocratic tendencies, which he has proudly touted

a rule by an autocrat or dictator harkens back to the reign of emperors and kings

- now, in the American Dark Ages, the United States of America is likely to adopt the practices of emperors and kings in securing high office only to male heirs
- this would be very bad for women

thanks to patriarchy and religion, women in this country put back in office a person who promises to make women’s lives be more like the lives of women like Anne Boleyn, and the countless Roman women that were used mainly for their wombs

- the evidence, both historical and contemporary, supports these conjecture
- the lies and conspiracy theories of fascists cannot hide the true intentions of people who call themselves “conservative”
- when it comes to actively taking rights away from women and ensuring that they remain at the service of incels and incompetent, violent men, these “conservatives” are truly progressive men who kill their wives should not be revered as great they should be remembered as the psychopaths and murderers that they truly are no matter their contemporary context the systematic killing of indigenous people or the serial murder of wives is a fucking crime everywhere, anytime murderers of women must NEVER be celebrated regardless of what great things they may have done

this is how the election of an incompetent, mentally-deficient, criminal, corrupt misogynist rapist can make the already undesirable position that women have in America even worse

- the greater role of religion in government threatens to make this terrible state of affairs truly

catastrophic

men dominate women through culture

while many societies welcome the birth of baby girls, there are still people who deem a baby girl not a blessing but a curse

- this is because for millennia, in some people view the “benefits” of maleness as noble, even though everything rests in the capacity that women have to host new humans in their bellies; without that, there is no humanity
- stupid men still do not get that women are real blessings of humanity

many of these men profess their belief in a benevolent “creator” who loves his most prized creation

- how can these “men of God” treat half the population as servants, slaves, broodmares, and sexual objects?

- why are these men so afraid of women that they prohibit them from becoming leaders?
- is it because women have consistently shown their superior leadership abilities, in addition to their astonishing physical superpower?
- is it because most of those men are mentally inferior and do not like their situation, so they take it out of people who had nothing to do with their being lazy incels?

Put my ribbons in my curls
Then carry around a knife with my diamonds
It's psycho we're living in a world Where I get into clubs
Because I'm hot as fuck
But I don't trust what's in my cup
That's what it means to be a girl

Fake it 'til we make everyone happy
But ourselves Use us for our bodies
'Til there's nothing but a shell

When I'm runnin' late, I dent my car
And I'd call you, but my phone's not charged Now, I'm just that girl who tries like
Way too damn hard
And I maxed out all my credit cards
Tryna play dress up to look the part
Now I'm just that girl who tries like
Way too damn hard

— That Girl, Emei

Yeah, she's the devil, yeah she's a snake
And she's a psycho, and she's a saint I'm gonna drown in her sad girl game
It's coming at a cost and I pay it in pain

Into the deep, watch me sink, come and pull me out
To the brink, and repeat, yeah, I'm coming down into her grip 21st century bitch

Flip the switch, take a hit, yeah, I'm losing count Cut it up, need a fix, 'cause I'm running out of lives in her grip

patriarchy

patriarchy gives unscrupulous men permission to act in immoral, illegal, and inhuman ways with little pushback

- young minds learn from these corrupt leaders that corruption is normal and that all that they are taught about morality, honesty, piousness, and the rule of law is absolute bullshit
- without strictly enforced ethics standards for leaders, this vicious cycle continues and we get a criminal child molester and rapist as president when logic is useless to them, when history is not on their side, when humanity proves them wrong, moneyed white men and their minions resort to the most efficient tool for world domination in existence: the unprovable and nonsensical idea of a “creator”

- this entity—even though he (go figure) is all knowing (of past, present, future), all powerful, and full of love and mercy—resorts to violence and mass-murder of mere, minuscule and insignificant humans, just like your everyday, dumb and weak king, warlord, or dictator
- why does “God” act in such petty ways?
- because “God” is a man-made concept used to control people, women in particular
- men use “God” to make people disbelieve their logical minds and embrace oppressive fantasy as real only a true psychopath needs to scare his followers by killing them or prancing around tanks and missiles, like Kim, Putin, and Xi do all the time (expect to see these types of embarrassing, idiotic displays of “power” in the US soon)

- and they do this not with toy soldiers but with women and men who sacrifice their welfare for the safety and security of their families and friends, to serve their country with honor, duty, and valor (unlike the cowards who fail their country's call by pointing at their feet)
- many of them make the ultimate sacrifice despite having worse impediments than made-up bone spurs
- people like these, who skirt their patriotic obligations in times of war, are an embarrassment to their country and deserve nothing but contempt, nothing but contempt
- people like these do not deserve the privilege and the honor of leadership

“God” is a human creation, a tool used by the undeserving few to indoctrinate, dominate, and take advantage of the masses history and archeology provide plenty of empirical evidence supporting this statement inquiring and curious minds would ask of their religious leaders things like:

given the absolutely vast size of the universe, why does the all-powerful and merciful “creator” kill innocent people, including mothers, children, and babies, when they annoy him?

why does he not just destroy Earth and start again fresh?

why does he not show mercy all the time?

what are the “lessons” to be learned from mass murder?

why does he mass-murder only certain people, expressly the ones who make life difficult for those at the top?

scripture tales and fantasies do not provide answers because they are made up

- the Inquisition, the Holocaust, slavery, Hiroshima, Nagasaki
- this is where the real answer lies: man is the one who oppresses and kills because he is petty, lascivious, violent, and dishonest
- man cannot invent a god with only good qualities because he cannot contain his contempt for the “weak” and his desire for absolute power over them
- letting go of that notion, just like kids eventually let go of the idea of Santa Claus, would be the primordial phase of the solution for so many of humanity’s problems, especially valuing women lower than dogs, cats, and rabbits

thankfully, national trends show consistent decline in the portion of American citizens still holding on to the “God” delusion

- eventually, the portion of the population that is enthralled with and controlled by this will reach levels so low that Americans will be free to focus on their welfare and their humane advancement without being distracted by the misogynistic and hateful musings and actions of contemptuous, immoral, and rich white men

original sin is a devious concept created to ensure that no one is able to skate on their actual innocence

- everyone is born with sin and therefore must atone to this “creator” man
- the idea is genius, though
- similar how people train elephants with chains when they are babies so that they stay put as adults
- although they could easily break their chains when they are grown adults, they seldom attempt such actions because of their early conditioning: why try to break something that is unbreakable?

yes, women are the elephants in this metaphor

- women have the power to break free from the chains that patriarchy imposes on them because they are truly powerful

SLEEPING BEARS WAKE UP AND TEAR SHIT UP

patriarchy tells women and girls that their physical safety, their financial success, their respect depend on how much they adhere to the roles that society has assigned the female sex

- women have all the responsibility and accountability and receive all the punishment, but men get all the fun
- why the fuck is that?

Today I woke up wish I didn't Wanna break somebody's face
I read the news another story
Of a girl murdered and raped
It was a cop, he had a family
He didn't know her
Didn't know, didn't know, didn't know

Intrusive thoughts run through my mind
When I'm out alone, hands by my side
And I can't help thinking maybe one day It'd be my body they find
But part of me just wants to fight
Most of me is sick and tired
Part of me just wants to lose my fucking shit
And let him have it bitch no

toxic masculinity

patriarchy—being a culture and system of domination of men over women in a society—requires the maximization of traits that advantage men over traits that advantage women, which is the point behind toxic masculinity toxic masculinity is devaluing the positive aspects of femininity, aspects such as empathy, care, mutual respect, diplomacy, and sensitivity

- it is interesting to note that these are the main traits of effective leaders, leaders who do not impose their will on others, but who consider all aspects of a problem in deciding how to solve it
- people who rely on diplomacy and mutual respect can reach consensus with the stakeholders, which results in a solution that most participants feel is their decision, not just a command by someone who does not understand the problem and its implications
- the Iroquois Confederacy, one of the world's oldest participatory democracies, is led by women and persists to this day

one of the traits of toxic masculinity is excessive narcissism

- these individuals need attention to feel whole; therefore, many of the objectives behind their actions are solely to bring attention to themselves
- these people have a very high sense of self-importance and therefore seek constant, unreasonable, and undeserved admiration
- they act loudly, cause pain in others, and ensure that any situation centers on themselves
- they want people to admire them
- although these individuals may appear to be very confident in themselves, they get easily upset by minor criticisms
- in other words, they are insecure and have very thin skin
- they also see themselves as being above everyone else
- not coincidentally, individuals suffering from toxic masculinity exhibit symptoms of narcissistic personality disorder
- one of these symptoms is avoiding situations in which they might fail, such as participating in debates against opponents whom they know are superior than them
- they do not want to be publicly embarrassed toxic masculinity is a tool for the domination of men over women

- a group or community can ensure that men are the ones with the most power and influence by teaching boys (and girls) that being a boy is more desirable than being a girl: men are bigger and stronger than women; therefore, men must be the leaders of the family, group, and community
- by placing these ideas in young minds, when those boys and girls grow up, they continue that

“tradition” automatically, almost by instinct

- it is very difficult for these adults to let go of the lessons that their parents and teachers took so much work to teach them

the other side of the patriarchy coin is toxic femininity, which holds the same basic tenets that toxic masculinity holds but from the point of view of women and girls

the advent of social media—where individuals can anonymously spew dangerous content (including horrible threats and lies to and about people who they deem enemies) that tech companies can direct to vulnerable audiences to make the most profit—has only made the tech companies that control it hugely powerful and influential

- these companies, guided by greed and the benefits of patriarchy for their very wealthy owners, have taken society past the breaking point (yes, society is broken)
- this is the point where the lies of those who exhibit the most toxic masculinity possible are more influential than the facts that other people bring to the discussion
- nothing exemplifies this more than “they are eating the dogs, they are eating the cats,” an episode that shows that truth no longer matters
- what matters is how much humiliation one side can bring the other of course, just because men customarily have dominated women does not mean that continuing that “tradition” is healthy in a contemporary society

- when women are relegated to perform “female duties,” which seldom include leadership over others, specifically men, the society loses the more rounded, considerate, and smart leadership that women provide
- that society is then reliant on the reactionary, conflict-focused decision-making that most men learned when they were boys
- these men then ensure that the society continues those practices by putting a high value on “tradition” and on not veering away from it, which is the objective of religion
- they make it shameful to exhibit the traits that women have that make them better people and leaders than most men could ever be

Violence is the last refuge of the incompetent.

these biased views are codified into laws and practices that the society adopts, enforces, and teaches its younger generations

- the precious time when young minds are being formed—when girls and boys learn how to be acceptable members of society—become a valuable tool to ensure the continuation of this irrational male dominance over women
- we see evidence of this in the practices of traditionalists, who choose to remove real history from their children’s education and replace it with an idealized environment where “men were men, and women were women” (the Nazis used this with their myth of the Aryan race); where men were at the top and women were at the bottom because that is how things should be; where slavery was nothing more than an “immigration program” for people from Africa and other places

men who exhibit traits of toxic masculinity are not the men serving effectively in the armed forces, where individuals must work as a team in close quarters to keep each other safe

- completing a mission, rescuing a comrade, losing a teammate are events that cause every service member, woman, man, or other, to display the type of emotional reactions that these “macho men,” who talk the talk but never walk the walk, describe as “not manly” or even “pussy-like”

- these clowns are the first ones who would run from a fire or dangerous situation without even asking whether someone needs help also, as a servicemember, showing a thin-skin is asking to be ridiculed every single day, especially during training

- men who hold their toxicity close to heart would not be successful soldiers, sailors, marines, or airmen
- they could get people killed, including themselves

these so-called “real men” are the ones who go into Target during Pride Month and kick down the Pride signage and products, because it takes a real, strong, powerful hombre to drop light cardboard boxes

- instead of big, strong men, they are more accurately described as weak and cowardly little boys with serious problems connecting with women and people in general
- because they fear being judged so much, they never open up to anybody; they are never their true selves
- they never find real connection with other human beings (maybe not even their pets)
- this is why they identify so well with the weak, senile “leaders” of today, and their even weaker minions, men like Senator Ted Cruz, who responds to direct insults toward his wife with smiles, endorsements, and first-class ass kissery

“What Is Toxic Masculinity?”

In instances of sexual assault, for example, men who identified the most with masculine behaviors were less likely to stop the assault. The study found that men wouldn’t intervene in any conflict if they thought their reputation as being traditionally masculine might be compromised.

— What Is Toxic Masculinity?, Amy Morin, LCSW

their insecurities are so deep and defining, that they treat any possibility of being viewed as weak in the eyes of their peers (they do not have any friends, not by the common definition of friendship) as a very serious matter

- this is why, after President Obama made fun of then-citizen Trump at the 2011 White House Correspondents’s Dinner, the latter has made it his mission to destroy everything Obama accomplished while president, like some immature five-year-old child would do after feeling slighted by a sibling or buddy
- the level of immaturity and pettiness in these so-called alpha men is truly astounding, and sad
- these are not role models by any stretch of the imagination
- these are people who need serious medical treatment, and who very seldom take it because of the serious damage that would cause to their perceived reputation as super men toxic masculinity also wreaks havoc with the environment:

Sorry

That I filled your wounds with salt

Sorry

But it's really all your fault

I warned you twice I don't wanna play nice

You coulda walked away but you walked into my knife

I'd say sorry

But you know the fuck I'm not

— Not Sorry, FKA Rayne

I think you might've made me

Into a big mistake

If only I could change me

I'm everything you hate

So let our love decay

I burned our photo frame

You left me broken now I'm bones

“nasty women”

the shaming of “nasty women” by those who oppress and violate women and girls is the pinnacle of toxic masculinity

- when individuals do not have the wit to come up with arguments against an opponent, like immature children with no manners they revert to calling those superior opponents names or commenting on attributes like race and gender because that is what misogynistic, illiterate, racists do
- these ad hominem attacks are tools that inauthentic, unoriginal men use try to get their way
- and in a patriarchal society, these incredibly weak men usually get what they want because they have the support of really rich and influential retrogrades so, who are these “nasty” women?

Hillary Clinton

- former secretary of state, first lady, US senator (first woman senator from New York), diplomat, and accomplished lawyer (becoming partner in a law firm, the first woman in that firm to reach that position), writer (she writes her own books), and activist

Mette Frederiksen

- Danish Prime Minister serving since June 2019, and leader of the Social Democrats since June 2025
- the second woman to hold either office, she is also the youngest prime minister in Danish history

Nancy Pelosi

- 52nd speaker of the United States House of Representatives, serving from 2007 to 2011 and again from 2019 to 2023

Meghan, Duchess of Sussex

- American member of the British royal family, media personality, and former actress
- involved in charity work focused primarily on women's issues and social justice
- cofounder of Archewell Inc. a mix of for-profit and not-for-profit business organizations

Kamala Harris 49th and current vice president of the United States since 2021 under President Joe Biden

- first female US vice president; highest-ranking female official in US history
- first African-American and first Asian-American vice president
- from 2017 to 2021, she represented California in the US Senate
- Attorney General of California from 2011 to 2017
- District Attorney of San Francisco from 2004 to 2011

April Ryan

- American reporter, author, and White House Correspondent for The Grio
- White House correspondent and Washington, D.C. bureau chief for American Urban Radio Networks from January 1997 to 2020
- political analyst on CNN from 2017
- named "Journalist of the Year" by the National Association of Black Journalists in 2017

Carmen Yulín Cruz

- mayor of the city of San Juan, Puerto Rico from 2013 to 2020
- served in the House of Representatives of Puerto Rico from 2009 through 2013

 I'm a liar, I'm a cheater, I'm a non-believer
 I'm a popular, popular monster
 I break down, falling into love now with falling apart

I'm a popular, popular fucking monster

Yeah, here we go again, motherfucker, oh

We're sick and tired of wondering

Praying to a God that you don't believe

We're searching for the truth in the lost and found

So the question I ask is Where the fuck is your god now?

— Popular Monster, Halocene, Lauren Babic

Dolls kill

Don't provoke us or we will

Push you downhill

Might be pretty, but we're still

Bitter as much as we're sweet

Knife hidden under the sheets

Baby, dolls kill

Don't provoke us or we will

Sugar and spice and everything nice

No, that's not what we're made of Venom and ice, tequila that bites

Go ahead and pray 'cause (Haha)

Dolls kill

— Dolls, Rain Paris

I hate you for always saving me from myself

I hate you for always choosing me and not someone else

I hate you for always pulling me back from the edge

I hate you for every kind word you ever said

Blood, blood, blood, pump mud through my veins

Shut your dirty, dirty mouth, I'm not that easy

Blood, blood, blood, pump mud through my veins

I'm a dirty, dirty girl, I want it filthy

I love you for everything you ever took from me
I love the way you dominate and you violate me
I love you for every time you gave up on me
I love you for the way you look when you lie to me

— Blood, In This Moment

Ten-hut, sluts at attention

Baby, can you swim? 'Cause it's a tsunami (It's water) Use me as a muse to show off my body (It's perfect)
Wanna see me in it, so you know he coppin' (Bring it out) Mirrors on the ceiling 'cause he like to watch it (Ooh) Did it so good that he raised the bar (It's up)
Got hungry, couldn't wait, he ate it in the car (Yuh)
Know a good girl, never let him starve (Uh huh)
A eater love to eat, so he ain't going far (Yuh)
I'ma throw it back, no time to relax (Uh huh)
Body gripping, sweat dripping, head all in this cat Finger-lickin' good, got me scratching up his back

Oh, oh, give that boy a snack (Come here)

Lick the cat, lick the cat, lick the cat, yes (Uh huh)

Lick the cat, lick the cat, lick the cat, yes (Right there)

— Lick The Cat, Big Boss Vette

marriage

“behind a good man is a good woman” is true; however, a more accurate saying would be “in front of a good woman is a man abusing her and taking credit for her smarts and accomplishments”

in many cultures men still think that marriage gives them carte blanche to abuse their wives in any way, at any time

- men and boys must be disabused of this notion because women do not want to be raped or beaten up by their husbands, no matter the vows they pledged to uphold
- wives are not the property of their husbands, no matter what backwards religions state so to make this “new” position on marriage, marriage contracts—yes, in this world brides and grooms would benefit from having contracts that clearly specify what both partners consider domestic violence—must have domestic-violence clauses that stipulate that any instance of domestic violence by any of the partners constitutes a breach of contract that gives the victim cause to initiate divorce proceedings in favor of the victim

- the contract may also stipulate that the victim may decide to place the attacker on probation for a period
- a second act of violence against the victim while on probation would give the victim cause for immediate divorce
- no third party is permitted to intervene in this action, including family members and clergymen

I heard the bells and I just knew
An angel once now a ghost of you Deliver me from my own desires
From my ring of fire (from my ring of fire) Tonight!

I would have loved you for a thousand years
I would have died for you
I would have sacrificed it all my dear
I would have bled for you

Till death do us part
You were unholy right from the start
It's a nice night for a black wedding

— Black Wedding, In This Moment Rob Halford

I don't start shit, but I can tell you how it ends

Don't get sad, get even So on the weekends
I don't dress for friends
Lately, I've been dressing for revenge

She needed cold hard proof so I gave her some
She had the envelope, where you think she got it from?
Now she gets the house, gets the kids, gets the pride Picture me thick as thieves with your ex-wife
And she looks so pretty Driving in your Benz
Lately, she's been dressing for revenge

— Vigilante Shit, Taylor Swift

First, we'd break up then we make up Took a breaking point to wake up
Now, I'm putting on my makeup
Clear the room Left you screaming in the kitchen Second I turned the ignition
Sped away from all your bitchin'
Fuck you too

Now, I'm off your medication
Every day's a celebration
Got a brand new reputation since you're gone (Yeah)
This is my moment, this is my turn
You should make way, don't wanna get hurt, no

Bet you thought that I would come back, boy
You never thought I'd make a comeback, boy
And if you ever try to come back, boy You'll regret that bet that you never will forget that — Woman of the Hour, Stela Cole

Yeah, yeah, yeah
You know who are

Fuck you all

Would you still feel powerful if I pulled up and slit your throats, ya?

You know what you are, fucking choke

Will you still feel macho when I turn your skin into a coat?

Wrap your car around a tree tonight

If I see you on the streets again, I'll take your fuckin' life, ya

Got no pulse at all, that's just right

If you dare to show your face again

Prepare to pay the price (haha)

— Kill All Predators, Banshee, ZAND

i swear to god

i got get out of this house

o te mato

me ignoras o me gritas ni soy tu única chica hoy soy tu flor marchita ale antes fui tu muñequita hoy salgo pa la calle toy lista pal desmadre tomo pa olvidarte

mejor que quererte

mejor que matarte

— Mejor Que Matarte, La Doña

Figurine of you

I'm pulling on the threads

They're coming lose

I'm pocking at your cloth

It's kind of cute

To watch your face turn blue

Me and my girls, yeah, call us a coven
When it comes lovin'
They got my back when I go on trusting Boys, like you

You're gone and buried
The cemetery
Boy, ain't it scary
R.I.P you're dead to me

— Cross My Heart I Hope U Die, Meg Smith, Chandler Leighton

Already pulling me in Already under my skin
And I know exactly how this ends

I let you cut me open, just to watch me bleed Gave up who I am for who you wanted me to be Don't know why I'm hoping, so fucking naive Falling for the promise of the emptiness machine

— The Emptiness Machine, Linkin Park

You can't hurt me now
Can't hold me down
What's done is done
You can't hurt me now
Can't hold me down
I've had enough
Oh Lord, you're dead to me
So I lay you down, lay you down to sleep

You can't hang your chains on me
When you're six feet deep
This heart ain't yours to bleed
Now that yours no longer beats
Hallelujah, I'm over you, yeah
I buried you

the value of women in other countries

this article has presented plenty of empirical evidence—not gut feelings or opinions based on men-focused “scripture” created to control the masses—that shows how the culture of this country is biased against women’s lives, to the point that the governments of several states murder them for not conforming with the views of some sick, perverse, criminal men who are not fit to supervise a pigsty

- unfortunately, thanks to a gullible electorate, those cretins appear to have the wind beneath their warped wings
- women who are fond of their lives have three options: leave, fight, or die

note that praying is not an effective option

- at best, it is feel-good self therapy that does not work
- there is absolutely no evidence of it having ever worked
- talk of “mysterious ways” or “god’s plan” is nothing but talk, the tools of good conmen
- people who peddle the effectiveness of prayer are hawking what can only be called bullshit
- these are the same people who talk about “family values” and “the sanctity of life” and then happily rape their teenage daughters (or anyone’s teenage daughters) and kill innocent women—who do nothing more than live their lives to their best of their ability, while spreading love and compassion—leaving orphans, widowers, and people mourning that unnecessary loss of FUCKING LIFE
- there is plenty of evidence supporting this last statement
- these people are the highest forms of hypocrites, which are the lowest forms of scum, and can be compared with illegal-drug peddlers, human traffickers, and conspiracy-theory spreaders
- yes, these three groups of people ARE THE SAME
- no one should heed what scum say what options are available for the adventurous ones?

the life of a woman is valued higher than a dog, cat, rabbit, or deer in many countries

- although the USA is number 20 (USA, USA, USA!), many countries listed below it value the life of women higher than the life of dogs, cats, or even rabbits!
- Andorra is pretty terrible, but at least the interests of rich crusty old white men do not override logic or humanity
- performing abortions is illegal in most cases there, but the woman is never killed for becoming pregnant (like what happens today in Indiana, Texas, and Georgia (maybe Florida too, but its retrograde governor and his familiar may be keeping that information from being published))
- also, the penalties that medical professionals incur for performing an abortion on a woman—with or without her consent—are a lot more lenient than the penalties Texas imposes on medical professional who despite the risks perform an abortion to save the woman’s life (exceptionalism my ass, except when being exceptionally cruel to women!)
- Texas is truly a retrograde civilization because it allows abhorrent people like Abbott and Paxton to look over the health and safety of their inhabitants; even traveling there puts any woman in danger of being murdered by those criminals

if you are a woman and value your life

is it surprising to anyone that, in a country that considers money speech, a bunch of decrepit, old, misogynist white men with lots of money have made—despite the country’s “scripture,” the Constitution—women legally third-class citizens, behind dogs, cats, and other animals?

- this is what happens when money is allowed to dominate a country’s politics
- this country seems to be taking its cues from the leaders of the Inquisition, with women being the persecuted (for now, at least) are you frustrated by women’s loss of value, equality, and human rights in the USA?

- if the answer is yes, and you are adventurous, consider moving to any of the countries on the list linked earlier
- but the great majority of the countries listed there treat women better than the bad new USA
- of the first 40 countries listed, the USA is the country with the worst health-related laws against women and the people who choose to save their lives
- remember, this is not an opinion meant to fool the gullible; this is a fact

in those countries, women are not murdered for having a vagina and a functioning reproductive system

in those countries, women going through medical distress are not left to die in parking lots or the street, destroying life, destroying families, tearing the last threads of what used to be a civil society

- but this is not surprising in a country that is effectively run by rich, hateful, decrepit old white men women who decide to stay but do not wish to be left to die, must do something, such as rebel against the women-haters and their enablers

woman, yes you individually think for yourself and
